Dear Sir,

Approval of Water Supply Fittings

I refer to a previous letter from this Authority ref. (85) in WWO 6/3320/80 dated 2 July 1982 on the same captioned subject.

The National Water Council was dissolved on 30 September 1983. As the result, the responsibility for testing fittings and approval service has been transferred to the Water Research Centre, which under the United Kingdom Water Fittings Scheme has commenced to function with effect from 1 October 1983.

To that effect, sub-paragraph 4(b) in my aforesaid letter should therefore be amended to read as :-

- (b) Fittings accepted and certified by the Water Research Centre of U.K. for compliance with the requirements of U.K. Water Byelaws.

Similarly, Notes 5 in the Waterworks Form Ga-Annex I will also be amended in the fresh issue of forms to replace National Water Council by Water Research Centre under Cat. B fittings

Water fittings that have been approved and certified by the National Water Council before its dissolution remain to be acceptable by this Authority.

Yours faithfully,

Signed
