According to the Waterworks Regulation (Cap. 102A), anglers have to observe the following terms and conditions of fishing licence when fishing at designated reservoirs or irrigation reservoirs:-

1. The licence holder is allowed to enter and remain in the reservoir area on the understanding that he/she does so entirely at his/her own risk. He/She must take the land with everything thereon as he/she finds it and shall not have or make any claim for damage to or loss of property, personal injury or death against the Water Authority howsoever such damage to or loss of property, personal injury or death may be occasioned.
2. The licence is for the use of one rod and line only, and is not transferable.
3. The licence must be produced on demand by a police officer or other authorized officer.
4. Licences will not be issued to any person under the age of thirteen.
5. The use of nets or other appliances (apart from rod and line) or the use of explosive or toxic substances to catch or destroy fish is strictly prohibited.
6. The use of boats, dinghies, rafts etc. for fishing is prohibited.
7. Except the exempted fish[^], all Black Bass under 360 mm, all Snakehead under 300 mm and all other fish species under 180 mm in length measured from the most forward point of the head to the farthest tip of the tail shall be immediately returned alive to the water.
8. Except the exempted fish[^], not more than two Black Bass 360 mm or over and two Snakehead 300 mm or over and two numbers of each species 180 mm or over in length for any other fish species shall be retained by any one angler in one day.
9. The licence may later be revoked and replaced by another on different terms.
10. Please keep the licence intact. No copy will be issued on any loss or damage.

Apart from the above, anglers are also reminded that:

1. To protect fish, birds and people from lead poisoning, anglers are prohibited to use lead fishing sinkers.
2. The release of any animals, including fish and reptiles, into reservoirs without the prior permission of the Water Authority is prohibited.
3. Do not litter or pollute the reservoirs.
