

Water Safety Plan Subsidy Scheme (Web accessible version)

- Description of visuals : The opening shot shows the apartment of a female character acting as a friend (hereafter “female friend”) of Alex Fong. A close-up shot shows her holding a glass and filling it with the drinking water from the tap. The scene then switches to another shot showing his female friend opening a tool box. She then picks up a water test pen. When she removes the cap of the pen and is about to place the pen into the glass of water that she is holding, the scene shows a close-up shot of Alex Fong’s eyes staring at that glass of water. Alex Fong says:
- Alex Fong : You don’t have to do this to ensure water quality!
- Description of visuals : The scene then pulls wide to show Alex Fong picking up the glass of water and talking to his female friend. Alex Fong says to his female friend:
- Alex Fong : The water supplied by the Water Supplies Department is safe to drink
- Description of visuals : After Alex Fong finishes talking, he holds that glass of water and is about to drink. The female friend stops him and grabs that glass. The female friend says:
- Female friend : But the water quality could be affected by a building’s plumbing system
- Description of visuals : Alex Fong immediately replies and says:
- Alex Fong : The Water Safety Plan for Buildings should be implemented
- Description of visuals : The scene changes to the ground floor lobby of the apartment. A shot sees Alex Fong standing next to his female friend. Alex Fong points to the certificate issued by the Water Supplies Department displaying at the lobby wall to his female friend. At the same time, a family consisting of father, mother and young daughter walk through the lobby entrance. Alex Fong then says to his female friend:

- Alex Fong : so that plumbing systems are regularly inspected and maintained
- Description of visuals : A shot sees Alex Fong and his female friend turning around to face the camera.
Alex Fong continues:
- Alex Fong : A subsidy from the Government is now available
- Description of visuals : The screen then changes to show the three-person family. Mother of the family responds to Alex Fong and his female friend.
The mother says:
- Mother : Residents can then rest assured on drinking water safety in buildings!
- Description of visuals : The scene then switches to see Alex Fong, his female friend and the three-person family standing in front of the certificate.
A security guard appears and stands next to Alex Fong.
All of them say together:
- Everyone : Owners' organisations of eligible buildings can apply for the subsidy!
- Description of visuals : After that, the scene changes to an animation setting showing the logos of the "Water Safety Plan Subsidy Scheme", the Development Bureau and the Water Supplies Department.
The website address www.wsd.gov.hk, also appears on the screen.
The voiceover of Alex Fong says:
- Alex Fong : Visit the Water Supplies Department's website for details
- Description of visuals : The end shot shows Alex Fong and his female friend sitting on the sofa in the apartment.
They both hold champagne flutes filled with water.
Alex Fong offers a toast to his female friend and says:
- Alex Fong : Enjoying good water is so easy!
